BIDDING PRAYER

Dear People of God: In the season of Advent, it is our responsibility and joy to prepare ourselves to hear once more the message of the Angels, to go even to Bethlehem and see the Son of God lying in a manger. Let us hear and heed in Holy Scripture the story of God's loving purpose from the time of our rebellion against Him until the glorious redemption brought to us by his holy Child Jesus; and let us look forward to the yearly remembrance of his birth with hymns and songs of praise. But first, let us pray for the needs of the whole world; for peace and justice on the earth; for the unity and mission of the Church for which he died, and especially for his Church in our country and in this city. And because he particularly loves them, let us remember in his name the poor and helpless; the cold, the hungry and the oppressed; the sick and those who mourn; the lonely and the unloved; the aged and the little children; as well as those who do not know and love the Lord Jesus Christ. Finally, let us remember before God his pure and lowly Mother, and that whole multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and whom, in Jesus, we are one for evermore. And now, to sum up all these petitions, let us pray in the words which Christ himself has taught us:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Almighty God bless us with his grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and to the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all. Amen.

FIRST LESSON: Isaiah 60:1-5

Lector: Fay Manicke

Arise and shine, for your light has come.

Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
For darkness shall cover the earth,
and thick darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will arise upon you,
and his glory will appear over you.
Nations shall come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.
Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together, they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.
Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice,
because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you,
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

SECOND LESSON: Isaiah 11:1-9

Lector: Erica Warner

The spirit of the Lord will rest upon the Holy One.

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

ANTHEM

A Tender Shoot

Otto Goldschmidt

A tender shoot hath started up from a root of grace,
As ancient seers imparted from Jesse's holy race.
It blooms without a blight, blooms in the cold bleak winter
Turning our darkness into light.

This shoot, Isaiah taught us, from Jesse's root should spring.
The Virgin Mary brought us the branch of which we sing.
Our God of endless might, gave her this child to save us,
Thus turning darkness into light.

THIRD LESSON: Baruch 4:36-5:9

Lector: J. Gil Williams

The Scribe Baruch urges the people to look East because salvation is at hand.

Look toward the east, O Jerusalem, and see the joy that is coming to you from God. Look, your children are coming, whom you sent away; they are coming, gathered from east and west, at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the glory of God. Take off the garment of your sorrow and affliction, O Jerusalem, and put on forever the beauty of the glory from God. Put on the robe of the righteousness that comes from God; put on your head the diadem of the glory of the Everlasting; for God will show your splendor everywhere under heaven. For God will give you evermore the name, "Righteous Peace, Godly Glory." Arise, O Jerusalem, stand upon the height; look toward the east, and see your children gathered from west and east at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God has remembered them. For they went out from you on foot, led away by their enemies; but God will bring them back to you, carried in glory, as on a royal throne. For God has ordered that every high mountain and the everlasting hills be made low and the valleys filled up, to make level ground, so that Israel may walk safely in the glory of God. The woods and every fragrant tree have shaded Israel at God's command. For God will lead Israel with joy, in the light of his glory, with the mercy and righteousness that come from him.

FOURTH LESSON: Isaiah 40:1-11

Lector: Bobbie Powell

God comforts his people and calls on them to prepare for redemption.

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins. A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken." A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!" See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

FIFTH LESSON: Isaiah 64:1-9a

Lector: Cn. Phil Lewis

God is called upon to act and to come among us.

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence - as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil - to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity forever.

This Is The Truth Sent From Above

Ralph Vaughan Williams

arr. James Kirkby

This is the truth sent from above,
The truth of God, the God of love:
Therefore don't turn me from your door,
But hearken all, both rich and poor.

The first thing which I do relate
Is that God did man create,
The next thing which to you I'll tell,
Woman was made with man to dwell.

Then, after this, 'twas God's own choice to place them both in Paradise,

There to remain, from evil free,
Except they ate of such a tree.

But they did eat, which was a sin,
And thus their ruin did begin.
Ruined themselves, both you and me,
And all of their posterity.

Thus we were heirs to endless woes,
Till God the Lord did interpose,
And so a promise soon did run,
That he would redeem us by his Son.

SIXTH LESSON: Isaiah 35:1-10

Lector: John Gummere

The prophet proclaims that God will come and save us.

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, the majesty of our God. Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveler, not even fools, shall go astray. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

SEVENTH LESSON: Isaiah 7:10-15

Lector: Ellen Heath

God promises that a child shall be conceived who will be known as “God with us”.

Again the Lord spoke to Ahaz, saying, Ask a sign of the Lord your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven. But Ahaz said, I will not ask, and I will not put the Lord to the test. Then Isaiah said: “Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary mortals, that you weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel. He shall eat curds and honey by the time he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good.”

The Great Thanksgiving:

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds . . .

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All say together:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues . . .

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:*
Christ has died.

Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept. Then may be said . . .

Celebrant: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast.

All say together

Jesus, Lamb of God:

Have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins:

Have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world:

Give us your peace.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Bring down to us your salvation.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People: Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

EIGHTH LESSON: Micah 5:2-4

Lector: Susan Remmers

The one who is to rule Israel will be born in the village of Bethlehem.

You, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days. Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel. And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God. And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.

HYMN # 79 (Stanzas 1 & 5)

O Little Town Of Bethlehem

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "O Little Town Of Bethlehem". It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: 1 O lit - tle town of Beth - le - hem, how still we see thee lie! 2 For Christ is born of Ma - ry; and gath - ered all a - bove, 3 How si - lent - ly, how si - lent - ly, the won - drous gift is given! *4 Where child - ren pure and hap - py pray to the bless - ed Child, 5 O ho - ly Child of Beth - le - hem, de - scend to us, we pray;

NINTH LESSON: Luke 1:26-38

Lector: The Very Rev. René John

The Angel Gabriel announces to the Virgin Mary that she will bear the Son of the Most High.

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, "Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you." But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.” Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?” The angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. For nothing will be impossible with God.” Then Mary said, “Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

The Angel Gabriel

Basque carol,

arr. Paul Manz / T.A. Ohnesorge

The angel Gabriel from heaven came,
With wings as drifted snow, with eyes as flame:
“All hail, to thee, thou lowly maiden Mary,
Most highly favored lady!” Gloria!

“For know a blessed mother thou shalt be,
All generations laud and honor thee:
Thy son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold
Most highly favored lady.” Gloria!

Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head;
“To me be as it pleaseth God,” she said.
“My soul shall laud and magnify God’s holy Name.”
Most highly favored lady. Gloria!

Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ, was born
In Bethlehem all on a Christmas morn,
And Christian folk throughout the world will ever say:
“Most highly favored lady.” Gloria!

PRAYER

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility; that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Henry L. Edmonds, Julian Parrish, Virginia Barbarin, Rocco Zucaro, and Johanna VerWoert.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: Give to the departed eternal rest;

People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Deacon: We remember those who have died, especially The Rev. Darryl James, Jackie Kukowski, Nikki Giovanni, The Rev. Nils Blatz, The Rev. Jerome Nedelka, the victims of violence in our neighborhoods, and the victims of the ongoing wars around the world.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People: May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Deacon: We remember those with whom we give thanks, especially those who celebrate birthdays and anniversaries this week: Andrea John, Charles McIntire, Anthony Richardson, Charles B. Hopkins III, Pamela Koenig, Archie Ngwayah, Chinwendu Opara, Mike &

Debbie Raab, Methuselah McCrownsey, Philip G. Lewis, David Eastmead, Hilary Cox and Ciera Bertheau.

People: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
(The people may add their own petitions).

Celebrant: Loving and compassionate God, we thank you for your constant presence in our lives. Pour into our hearts such love for you that it overflows with acts of service for your people. As you cover us with your love, so may we work to provide shelters of wood, stone, and brick for all who are battered by the elements. May we set aside our own selfish wants and desires which blind us to the needs of our sisters and brothers and cause us to walk on the other side of the road. Grant that in your Kingdom all may together rest in security and love. Amen. ~ The Rev. Jayne Oasin

THE FINAL PRAYERS

The congregation standing, the Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

People:
And also with you.

Celebrant:
Let us pray:

The Collect of the Fourth Sunday of Advent

Purify our conscience, Almighty God, by your daily visitation, that your Son Jesus Christ, at his coming, may find in us a mansion prepared for himself; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Collect for Church Musicians and Artists

O God, whom saints and angels delight to worship in heaven; be ever present with your servants who seek through art and music to perfect the praises offered by your people on earth. Grant to them even now glimpses of your beauty, and make them worthy at length to behold it unveiled for evermore; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The prayers are concluded with this Collect:

Hasten, O God, the coming of thy kingdom; and grant that we thy servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold thy Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

THE ADVENT RESPONSORY

V. Judah and Jerusalem, fear not, nor be dismayed.
R. Tomorrow go forth, and the Lord will be with you.
V. Stand still, and you shall see the salvation of the Lord.
R. Tomorrow go forth, and the Lord will be with you.
V. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
R. Tomorrow go forth, and the Lord will be with you.
V. We wait for Thy loving-kindness
R. In the midst of Thy temple.

THE ADVENT BLESSING

May the Sun of Righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS

We remember God's holy catholic church, including Sean, our Presiding Bishop and Primate; Sally, our Bishop; René, Dean of this Cathedral; Bruce, John, Peter and Noel, priest associates; Carol and Chris, our Deacons, along with all other ministers in this congregation, lay and ordained; and all Anglican Christians around the world, especially the Anglican Church of Tanzania and the retiring Archbishop of the West Indies, Howard Gregory; and for our brothers and sisters in this diocese, including Joe Morris, Sylvestre and William, retired Bishops, and the Revs.: Henry Alan Leonard, Richard M.C. Morley and Susan E. Osborne-Mott..

We commend to your prayers this day all persons deployed in the service of our country. May they dwell safely under the protection of Almighty God.

We at Trinity Cathedral wish you a blessed Advent and a Merry Christmas!

Our Vision:

A visible agent of God's love in Christ, joyfully embracing all people.

Our Mission:

God is here; Jesus loves you.

We are a welcoming, diverse community sharing God's love,
Spreading the Gospel, and caring for all people and God's creation.

Come join us.

We will be greening the Cathedral on Saturday, December 21, 2024 from 8:00 am – 1:00 pm. Please speak with Art Powell, or call Patrice in the office, if you would like to help out for a bit that day – many hands make light work! Anything not completed that day will be finished up on Sunday, December 22 after the 10:00am Mass.

Do you have some Green to share? Art Powell and his merry band of helpers will be using lots of greenery around the Cathedral for our Christmas decorating! Do you have pine trees, white pine or holly trees that you could trim and share with the Cathedral? If so, please bring bags of greens to the Cathedral office (on weekdays) or to the Cathedral sacristy courtyard (on Sundays). Thanks for sharing!

Please turn in the names for your Christmas greens/music honoraria TODAY in order for them to be printed in the Christmas service bulletins.

CAST Presents - Join us for a Jazz Experience marking the re-awakening of LIGHT on the winter solstice, December 21st at 3:00 pm. Gwen Laster and Friends will be performing, and admission is by free will offering. See you there!

Annual Meeting Notice - On Sunday, January 19, 2025 Trinity Cathedral will hold its Annual Parish Meeting. There will be one service, at 10:00 am, followed by the meeting. Please stay tuned for more information on how the meeting will be conducted. There are nomination forms for the Vestry on the literature table in the main hallway. If you are the Chair of a Cathedral Commission or organization that submits a report to be included in the annual meeting booklet, please turn your report in to the Cathedral office no later than January 6th. Please send your reports to Patrice D'Angelo at patriceattrinity@aol.com.

The Wednesday Healing Eucharist will be OFF on December 18th (and the following two Wednesdays are Christmas and New Year's Day, with Mass at 10:00 am both days.) See you January 8th!

There are Advent calendars for adults, teens and youth on the literature table in the main hallway – please take them to enjoy at home!

2025 Stewardship Update – We have received $267,648 in pledges from 71 pledging families, for an average of $3,769.69 per family. Thank you for your generosity! If you would like a pledge card, please ask an Usher.

Altar Guild Shop Update - Check out the many new items - great for gift-giving! Christmas cards and stocking stuffers, too! Weekly specials are waiting for you! The Shop will be open Sundays during Advent.

Need that unique gift? The shop has a variety of nativities & ornaments from around the world.

The ornament tree is waiting to get bare! Also featuring beautiful upcycled jewelry from flatware.

Free gift-wrapping! Shop locally: save gas, time & money!

SPECIAL: “Taste of Joy - Recipes of Trinity Cathedral” Cookbook SALE - now just $7! (Reg. $10.) Cookbook proceeds buy fresh produce for our Food Pantry. Wrapped with a wooden utensil, now $10 - great hostess gifts for Christmas parties. A gift with a cause!

Let's help our brothers & sisters WARM UP! – Do you have any coats, sweaters, or hoodies that are just sitting in your closet waiting to warm up someone? We are collecting new and gently used clean coats, sweaters and hoodies: adult, teen and children's sizes. New sock donations welcomed too! Please bring your items by Sunday, December 29th. Thank you in advance for sharing your gift of warmth! (Distribution day is December 30th.)

The next Food Pantry distribution date is – Saturday, December 28th (2nd & 4th Saturdays this month) from 9-11:00 am. Each Thursday, we distribute hot dinners “to go” from 4:15–5:30pm at the Overbrook Avenue entrance as a satellite location for the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen.

If you have not yet pledged for 2025, please consider turning in your card now - We need to assign envelope numbers and get them to everyone to use them in the new year. Also, please use your NEW box of envelopes in 2025 – DO NOT use older boxes. This ensures that all of your donations will be posted to your pledge. Envelope boxes will be on the “ship table” in the Cathedral on December 22nd.
