Hymnal # 427

When Morning Gilds the Skies

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Lector: Judith Miller

A Reading from the book of Exodus (34:29-35)

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Second Reading

Lector: Angela DiJoseph

A Reading from Paul's Second letter to the Church in Corinth (2 Cor. 3:12—4:2)

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

The Word of the Lord.

Christ Upon the Mountain Peak

The Gospel: Luke 9:28-43a

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, “This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!” When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen. On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. Just then a man from the crowd shouted, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not.” Jesus answered, “You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.” While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. And all were astounded at the greatness of God.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Rev. Chris Cox, Deacon

All stand as able and say together

A Statement of Faith based on Galatians 3:26-28

Celebrant: Let us renew our pledge to work for unity, justice, and peace.

We are all children of God.

There is no longer Jew or Greek.

There is no longer slave or free.

There is no longer male and female.

For we are all one.

We believe Jesus lived for this and died for this.

We pledge ourselves with God's help and the support of each other to make this become a reality.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Lector: Bobbie Powell

The Leader and People pray responsively

Deacon: Formed by the word and promise of God, let us pray that the merciful glory of God, manifest in all the earth, may drive away all darkness and that God's providence lead all people from death into life, saying: Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Lector: For the church of Christ, that knowing now only in part, it may wait in humility and joy to see your full light, Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember God's holy catholic church, including Sean, our Presiding Bishop and Primate; Sally, our Bishop; René, Dean of this Cathedral; Bruce, John, Peter and Noel, priest associates; Carol and Chris, our Deacons, along with all other ministers in this congregation, lay and ordained; and all Anglican Christians around the world, especially the Anglican Church of Burundi; and for our brothers and sisters in this diocese, including Joe Morris, Sylvestre and William, retired Bishops; and The Rev. Maxine J. Cleghorn. Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: For preachers, that they may speak clearly of your Christ, transfiguring the words of ancient prophets, Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: For catechumens and for us all as we begin to keep Lent, that your word may transfigure our lives, Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: For the sick, for the dying, and for all who have asked for our prayers, that you will cause light to shine out of their darkness, Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember before you those who are sick, or in any other special need, especially the residents of Hamilton Grove Care and Rehabilitation Center; along with the People of Ukraine and Russia, the People of Israel and Palestine, the People of Haiti, Amarachi Ngozi Okere, Ellen Wanser, Andrew McDonald, Wes Wood, Virginia Barbarin, those with disabilities, the families of those who died on the Potomac, the Husher family, the Jorge family, James Arnold, Max Bourjolly, Tom Peters, Steven Erdy, Tammy and the Gibson family, Barbara Lawrence, Pope Francis, Rachel Steele, Ethan Rome, and Husayne Ferguson. Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember those who have died, especially Roberta Flack, Susanne Isbill, Fred Greene, Lamont Miller, Jerry Butler, the victims of violence in our neighborhoods, and the victims of the ongoing wars around the world. Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: For the nations of the earth and for their leaders, that they may learn the ways of your peace, Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We commend to your prayers this day all persons deployed in the service of our country. May they dwell safely under the protection of Almighty God. Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: For all those who seek you, not knowing your name, that they will find that your everlasting mercy has enlightened them and called them by name, Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember those with whom we give thanks, especially those who celebrate birthdays and anniversaries this week: Noreen Duncan, Timothy Nartey, John O'Brien, John Major, Bryan W. Hopkins and Lucy Adams. Lord, in your mercy,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Silence ~ The People may add their own petitions

Celebrant: Before you, O God, are all our prayers and all our needs. You are our life and light, our mercy and hope and our ever-dawning day. Hear us through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 360

Please remain in your pew for the Peace.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People:* And also with you.

Given that SARS-CoV2, the virus that causes the disease COVID-19, is now endemic in the US and globally, it is reasonable for parishes to return to a form of the peace common before 2019. It is clear, however, that for various reasons, some may not feel comfortable with handshakes, hugs and the like. It is thereby important that we are considerate and respectful of those who choose or need to take extra precautions.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds . . .

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All sing together

Sanctus

Hymnal # S-128

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues . . .

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray . . .

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Then may be said . . .

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

TRINITY CATHEDRAL OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW JERSEY
MARCH 2, 2025 ~ THE LAST SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

Following Christ, joining the Cathedral – We invite you to accept the invitation to follow Christ, to become a Christian and to become a member of Trinity Cathedral. We encourage you to fill in one of the pew cards and place it in the offering plate, or please contact one of the clergy.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Lectors for the 10:00 AM Mass on 3/9 are:

Brenda Whiteman, Virginia Harmer, Ellen Heath & Angela DiJoseph (alternate)

Chalice bearer: Judith Miller

The Ushers/Greeters for Sunday, 3/9 (2nd Sunday) are:

Edward Greenfield (Greeter/Usher), Dennie Higgins (alternate Greeter)

You are welcome to join us for coffee hour immediately following the 10:00 AM Mass, in our parish hall (go down the ramp toward the parking lot doors; the entrance to Synod Hall is on the left, directly across from the church office.)

There are Lent calendars for adults, teens and children on the literature table in the main hallway and on the “ship table” in the Cathedral.

This Thursday (3/6), we will bag food for the Food Pantry – please join us at 4:45 pm.

Join us for Ash Wednesday at your Cathedral, March 25, 2025 - 12:10 pm in All Saints Chapel with The Rt. Rev. Sally French, Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey and 7:30 pm in the Cathedral with The Very Rev. Rene John, Dean

Did you know that we host a Grief Support Group at Trinity? – The next meeting is Saturday, March 8 from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm in the Guild Room. Join us if you want to talk – or just listen. Bring a photo of the loved one you have lost, if you wish.

It's time to prepare for our Easter egg hunt! – On Sunday, April 20th we will host our annual East egg hunt on the grounds of the Cathedral (weather permitting). Can you contribute to the egg hunt? We don't actually need any more eggs (thankfully – have you seen the price of eggs lately?) What we DO need are egg fillers: candy, coins and very small toys and prizes that can fit inside. Please bring your contributions to the Cathedral office. Thanks!

Our 2025 Lenten Series - What are the collects of the Church? How can these beautiful prayers help to strengthen our faith by reminding us of God's goodness, mercy, and love? Join us on Wednesday evenings in Lent as we explore these deep truths, how they connect to Scripture, and how we can inwardly digest them as food for our Lenten journey. We'll meet via Zoom from 7 - 8:30 PM for five consecutive Wednesday evenings (March 12th – April 9th). There is nothing to purchase, you'll just want to have a Bible for reference. For more information, speak with Angela DiJoseph or Dean John.

New Parish Directory coming in Spring 2025! – On the “ship table” and the literature table in the main hallway, you will find blank member profile forms. Please fill one out and submit it to the cathedral office, or turn it in to an Usher on Sunday. We will use this information to complete the new parish directory for 2025. (If there is any information you wish to keep unpublished, simply indicate this on the form. Thanks!)

The next Food Pantry distribution date is – Saturday, March 8th (2nd & 4th Saturdays this month) from 9-11:00 am.

Each Thursday, we distribute hot dinners “to go” from 4:15–5:30pm at the Overbrook Avenue entrance as a satellite location for the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen.
