Processional Hymn

Hymnal # 398

I Sing the Almighty Power of God

Celebrant: Blessed be the God of our salvation:

People: Who bears our burdens and forgives our sins.

The Penitential Order

Celebrant: If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept. Remain standing or kneel as able.

Celebrant and People:

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Hymnal # S-91

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people are seated

First Reading

Lector: Howard Ebersole

A Reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah (43:16-21)

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: "Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise."

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Remain seated; all sing Refrain together

Psalm 126

Cantor: Susan Remmers

from Gradual Psalms for the RCL, ed. Bruce E. Ford, Church Publishing Incorporated

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, * then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

Refrain

Then they said among the nations, *
“The Lord has done great things for them.”
The Lord has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.

Refrain

Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

Refrain

Remain seated

Second Reading

Lector: Cn. Clara Gregory

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Church in Philippi (3:4b-14)

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

People:* Thanks be to God.

LEVAS # 165

I'm Pressing on the Upward Way

The Gospel: John 12:1-8

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Cn. Bruce Montgomery Priest Associate

All stand as able and say together

A Statement of Faith based on Galatians 3:26-28

Celebrant: Let us renew our pledge to work for unity, justice, and peace.

We are all children of God.

There is no longer Jew or Greek.

There is no longer slave or free.

There is no longer male and female.

For we are all one.

We believe Jesus lived for this and died for this.

We pledge ourselves with God's help and the support of each other to make this become a reality.

All stand

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,

maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Lector: John Gummere

The Leader and People pray responsively

Deacon: As God's new people, formed in Christ Jesus, let us join in prayer to God who makes all things new, saying: O God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Lector: Draw your church more deeply into the reality of Christ's sufferings, so that every one whom you have called in him may show forth the power of his resurrection. O God our Savior,
People: Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember God's holy catholic church, including Sean, our Presiding Bishop and Primate; Sally, our Bishop; René, Dean of this Cathedral; Bruce, John, Peter and Noel, priest associates; Carol and Chris, our Deacons, along with all other ministers in this congregation, lay and ordained; and all Anglican Christians around the world, especially Iglesia Anglicana de Chile; and for our brothers and sisters in this diocese, including Joe Morris, Sylvestre and William, retired Bishops; and the Members and Ministry of the Committee on Deceased Members. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: Renew the spirit of hope in every society and nation. Invigorate us, that we may strain forward to the future you promise. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We commend to your prayers this day all persons deployed in the service of our country. May they dwell safely under the protection of Almighty God. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: Show your mercy to those who are held back by infidelity to your plans, and free them to receive your word of life. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: Rescue from fear those who are deprived of their human needs or their human rights. Give them their share of the dignity you confer on all your children. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember before you those who are sick, or in any other special need, especially the residents of Hamilton Grove Care and Rehabilitation Center; along with the People of Ukraine and Russia, the People of Israel and Palestine, the People of Haiti, Amarachi Ngozi Okere, Ellen Wanser, Andrew McDonald, Wes Wood, Virginia Barbarin, Rachel Steele, Ethan Rome, Tara Shirk and the Valentine family, Edna Garrison, Sandra Counts, Karen Pilgrim, the Rodgers family, Mary Zegarski, Ed Buckley, Courtney & Diana Muldrow, Cristina Alvarez, Cliff & Yvette Salter, Alicia Booker, Donnell Boyd, Dr. Joyce Wilson Harley, Veronica Austin, Daevon, Donte & Leelee Austin, Brian Mullin, Lisa Johnson, Curtis Williams, Donald Brokate & Anthony Rabara, Dr. Joyce Wilson Harley, Crystal Smith, and Jane & Paul Battaglini. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Lector: Grant to this assembly a heart open to your word, that we may embrace your promise, heed your commands, and declare your praise. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember those with whom we give thanks, especially those who celebrate birthdays and anniversaries this week: John Gummere, Hannah Rose Sopko, Paul & Therese (Terry) Cooper and Jeffrey H. Cooper. O God our Savior,

People:* Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: God our Savior and our Redeemer, you are constantly at work, bringing forth new things in your creation. Hear the prayer we make to you, and continue to perform ever greater wonders for the entire family of humankind, through your Son, Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please remain in your pew for the Peace.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People:* And also with you.

Given that SARS-CoV2, the virus that causes the disease COVID-19, is now endemic in the US and globally, it is reasonable for parishes to return to a form of the peace common before 2019. It is clear, however, that for various reasons, some may not feel comfortable with handshakes, hugs and the like. It is thereby important that we are considerate and respectful of those who choose or need to take extra precautions.

Eucharistic Prayer A

Chalice bearer: Cn. Phil Lewis

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds . . .

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All sing together

Sanctus

Hymnal # S-114

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues . . .

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray . . .

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Then may be said . . .

Celebrant: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People:* Therefore let us keep the feast.

All sing together

Agnus Dei

Hymnal # S-158

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

RE: Sabbatical 2025

Dear Friends,

As we approach Holy Week and Easter I'm grateful to all for the blessings of a holy and life-giving Lent.

In a world seemingly filled with chaos, we must pray and work tirelessly to experience the abundant life Jesus promises in John 10:10 - "I have come that they may have life, and have it more abundantly."

In 2023 I was scheduled to take a Sabbatical. However, because we were in transition mode - electing and installing our new Bishop - it hardly seemed practical with everything happening.

In 2024 we had so many deaths that once more plans needed to be shelved. This year, after consulting with our Bishop, my clergy associates, Wardens and Vestry it does seem possible to have this time of renewal. I have sought to make it happen at a time that is least disruptive: May 1st - August 31st.

Our lay leadership (Wardens and Vestry) and Associate Clergy, together along with our Cathedral Administrator can ably do what is needed in my absence.

J. Gil Williams (Senior Warden), Margaret Nartey (Junior Warden) and Chinweze Ahaghotu (Clerk of Vestry) will handle business matters; Peter Bridge, Bruce Montgomery and Deacon Chris Cox, Clergy Associates, will handle pastoral matters. Please feel free to contact Patrice D'Angelo, Cathedral Administrator should the need arise. Visiting Clergy Phil Carr-Jones, Caroline Carson and Julia McKeon will assist with Sunday worship, celebrating and preaching on a couple of occasions. I'm confident all will be well. We've done this before on two occasions.

Thank you for affording me this time of reflection and renewal.

Let us pray...

Loving God, we give you thanks for a time of renewal and reflection sought by Dean René. Bless and watch over our time apart. Guide and bless all who will sustain Cathedral Ministries in his absence. And also direct our hopes and dreams for our community: Rooted in Faith, Grounded in Service. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Faithfully,

The Very Reverend René R. John
Dean
