First Reading

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (2:42-47)

They spent their time in learning from the apostles, taking part in the fellowship, and sharing in the fellowship meals and the prayers. Many miracles and wonders were being done through the apostles, and everyone was filled with awe. All the believers continued together in close fellowship and shared their belongings with one another. They would sell their property and possessions, and distribute the money among all, according to what each one needed. Day after day they met as a group in the Temple, and they had their meals together in their homes, eating with glad and humble hearts, praising God, and enjoying the good will of all the people. And every day the Lord added to their group those who were being saved.

The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

A Reading from the First letter of Peter (1 Peter 2: 19-25)

God will bless you for this, if you endure the pain of undeserved suffering because you are conscious of his will. For what credit is there if you endure the beatings you deserve for having done wrong? But if you endure suffering even when you have done right, God will bless you for it. It was to this that God called you, for Christ himself suffered for you and left you an example, so that you would follow in his steps. He committed no sin, and no one ever heard a lie come from his lips. When he was insulted, he did not answer back with an insult; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but placed his hopes in God, the righteous Judge. Christ himself carried our sins in his body to the cross, so that we might die to sin and live for righteousness. It is by his wounds that you have been healed. You were like sheep that had lost their way, but now you have been brought back to follow the Shepherd and Keeper of your souls.

The Word of the Lord.

Jesus, Our Mighty Lord

The Gospel: John 10:1-10

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am telling you the truth: the man who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. The man who goes in through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him; the sheep hear his voice as he calls his own sheep by name, and he leads them out. When he has brought them out, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice. They will not follow someone else; instead, they will run away from such a person, because they do not know his voice." Jesus told them this parable, but they did not understand what he meant. So Jesus said again, "I am telling you the truth: I am the gate for the sheep. All others who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Those who come in by me will be saved; they will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only in order to steal, kill, and destroy. I have come in order that you might have life—life in all its fullness.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

All stand as able and say together

A Statement of Faith based on Galatians 3:26-28

Celebrant: Let us renew our pledge to work for unity, justice, and peace.

We are all children of God.

There is no longer Jew or Greek.

There is no longer slave or free.

There is no longer male and female.

For we are all one.

We believe Jesus lived for this and died for this.

We pledge ourselves with God's help and the support of each other to make this become a reality.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Lector and People pray responsively

Deacon: Gathered in the care of the Good Shepherd and guardian of our souls, let us in trust pray for the church and the world, saying: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For all who serve the holy church of God, who serve tables and who preach and pray, who shepherd the lost and care for those in need, let us pray to the Lord.

Let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For all who are persecuted for the gospel, for all who have been martyred for their witness to the truth, for all in lonely places who rejoice in the hope of the resurrection, and for the blessed community of the saints, living and dead, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Lector: For all in the world who care for the sick, the dying the hungry and the destitute, the mentally ill and the deformed, let us pray to the Lord.

Richards, II, Frank Castellon, Malcolm Emmanuel Newman, Cyrus Ketter, Rachel Mathis, David Monte, Jennifer Ahaghotu, Sewon Bestman, Matthew McDermott, Nanette R. O'Brien-Blake, Kumeiwo Ngwayah and Debbie Raab. Let us pray to the Lord.

Silence as the people add their own petitions

Deacon: Holy God, open our eyes to a fresh vision for a peaceful world, along with the will to seek alternatives to vengeance and violence. Awaken in us compassion for the victims of war: soldiers of all nations, grieving families, civilians, the wounded creation. Open wide the eyes of world leaders, especially in our own country, to see a path toward peace in the Middle East, and in all those conflicts, too many to name, that tear apart the one human family. Grant us eyes wide open to peace. Amen. (From the Episcopal Peace Fellowship)

Celebrant: O loving God, we commend to your mercy all who have died and pray that we and all your saints may share life in your eternal dominion. Enable us to know that by Christ's wounds we have been healed, and that by the power of his risen and Spirit-giving life we are empowered to serve you all our days. We pray through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving:

Eucharistic Prayer A

Chalice bearer: Margaret Nartey

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds . . .

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People:

Hymnal # S-128

Sanctus

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues . . .

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray . . .

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Then may be said . . .

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Hymnal # S-165

Agnus Dei

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

All Baptized Christians are welcome to make their Communion at the Lord's table.

Communion Hymn LEVAS # 144

I Can Hear My Savior Calling

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reminder that the dedication of our historic embroidered kneeler display is today at 3:00 pm (a brief dedication and discussion of the project, and a reception in Synod Hall.)

On Sunday, May 3rd during hospitality hour, we will host a welcoming reception for our incoming Acting Dean, the Rev. Cn. Terence Lee and his family on their first Sunday with us. If you can bring a dish to share, please do – let's show the Lee family some of our famous Cathedral hospitality!

To help make Father Lee and his family (and others!) feel welcome at the Cathedral, we ask that everyone once again wear their nametags for worship and events at the Cathedral. This was a helpful practice that unfortunately, went by the wayside after the pandemic. Look for your nametag near the parking lot entrance. If there is not one with your name on it yet, please use a temporary nametag and sign up on the sheet provided; one will be made for you the following week.

Our Easter Garden has been disassembled for the season - Thanks to all for the many contributions that allowed us to make it so beautiful! Some of the plants are available for parishioners to take home. Please visit them in the hallway leading from the Cathedral to the Chapel and take one if you'd like. (Kindly leave the drip trays, as we use them for plants in the Cathedral.)

It's time to relax and have some FUN! - During this time of transition for our parish, it's especially important for us to get together for an evening of fun and fellowship. And while we do need to raise funds for the Cathedral, this event is more about gathering together as a congregation and celebrating! This is why we hope you'll join us for our Cathedral Fashion Show on Saturday, May 9th at 6:00 pm. Tickets are just $30 ($12 for kids 12 and up) and include delicious food, drinks, a DJ spinning music, and... FUN! Tickets are available on Sundays or by calling the office. Our last Fashion Show was a hoot, as parishioners modeled two outfits from their closet (casual and formal-ish.) All are welcome to participate - please sign up on the clipboard on the table outside Synod Hall, or call the office! If modeling is not your "style", we know you'll enjoy each other's company as we relax together and get to know our new Acting Dean. All the ladies will receive a token of our appreciation, and we'll honor mother-figures who are 80+. Questions? Speak with Margaret Narthey, our Junior Warden on Sundays, or call the Cathedral office: (609) 392-3805 ext. 100.

A fun way to support the Cathedral - Announce good news! Share what you're thankful for! Honor your loved ones and the mother figures in your life! The Fashion Show Booster Book will be printed and shared with everyone at the May 9th Fashion Show. (We can also send you an electronic copy, if you'd like!) For a $25 donation, you receive a full page for your message; a half page is $15. Please E-mail your booster information to Patrice D'Angelo in the Cathedral office: patriceattrinity@aol.com or call to give us your info.: (609) 392-3805 ext. 100. You can give your donations to Margaret Narthey, or place them in the offering plate, clearly marked "Booster Book". Thank you for your support!

The Cathedral Arts Series at Trinity welcomes vocal artist and entertainer, Keith Spencer in "We Shall Not Be Moved: Songs and Speeches from the Civil Rights Movement" Sunday, May 17th at 2:00 pm. Join us for this uplifting performance at a time when we deeply need to recall the struggles and achievements in the on-going battle for civil rights and dignity for all. Tickets are $30 adults/$10 students; call the Cathedral office.

The spring/summer clothing giveaway has been moved to May 16th – in order for us to be able to collect more clothing items. Please bring gently used men's, women's and children's clothing to the Cathedral by May 14th (leave them in Synod Hall or in the office.) All sizes: socks, shoes, pants, shirts, shorts, sweaters, jackets... even new sheets, towels, & blankets! If you can assist in setting up and/or helping on May 15th or 16th with this ministry, contact Lucy Adams or the Cathedral Office.

Is it raining in here, or is it me? - Probably since it was constructed, Trinity Cathedral (and All Saints Church before it) has grappled with leaks and other incursions of water and dampness. This is not surprising given that more than 40 percent of the rooms in these buildings (The Crypt, The undercroft, the Baggott Room, the lower levels of the Education Wing) are below ground level! The Property, Maintenance, and Improvement Commission has worked diligently to address roof maintenance and repairs, gutter maintenance and clearing, and methods for addressing humidity.

Over the next several months—during peak rain and humidity time—we will systematically be assessing what we can do to keep Trinity dry. However, we need your help! If you are interested in the issues of hydrology and related topics, please contact Bernard McMullan. On a more mundane level, if you see a leak, or evidence of leak, or a dripping or overflowing gutter, please let us know. Take a photo, drop off a note with Patrice, etc. Together, we can develop a reasonable plan and solution.

Two Sundays left to enter to win the Cinco de Mayo basket raffle! – We'll be selling tickets today and May 3rd after services, and we'll pick the winner on May 3rd. You'll have your items in time for Cinco de Mayo! The basket includes a $25 gift card to Chili's, Fiesta-style housewares, snacks, and margaritas. Tickets are just $10 each.

The next Food Pantry distribution date is – Saturday, May 9th (2nd & 4th Saturdays this month) from 9-11:00 am. Each Thursday, we distribute hot dinners “to go” from 4:15–5:30pm at the Overbrook Avenue entrance as a satellite location for the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen.

Trinity Cathedral Participates in World Labyrinth Day, Saturday May 2, 2026

The Cathedral Arts Series at Trinity announces that Trinity Cathedral will join the annual World Labyrinth Day (Saturday, May 2) during which thousands of people participate in a walk of local labyrinths in communities across the globe. Those attending the event at Trinity Cathedral will have the opportunity to walk two different labyrinths on the front lawn of the Cathedral along West State Street.

Maria LoBiondo, a well-known storyteller, and labyrinth guide will facilitate the labyrinth walk. The afternoon will begin at 12:30 PM with a brief presentation by LoBiondo about labyrinths, their history, and contemporary use. Then at 1PM, joining with thousands of others across the world—in an effort called, “Walk as One at One”—participants will be invited to walk their choice of labyrinths at their own pace.

Participants are encouraged to bring water and snacks to sustain themselves. Cathedral restrooms will be available for those who need them. Brochures describing the labyrinths and suggestions for making them part of one’s meditative or introspective moments will be available. Ample parking is available in the Cathedral’s parking lot behind the building as well as along local streets.

The permanent labyrinth at Trinity Cathedral was installed as part of an Eagle Scout project more than 20 years ago and has served as meditation device since. Its design is modelled after a medieval labyrinth found in the Basilica of San Vitale in Ravenna, Italy. Trinity Cathedral’s permanent labyrinth is open 24 hours daily throughout the year.

The second labyrinth will be installed on the front law specifically for this event. Its diameter is approximately 50 feet and its design is known as a processional labyrinth that offers two entrances allowing walkers to pass others travelling in a different direction. Internationally known labyrinth installer Lars Howlett designed the labyrinth. The temporary processional labyrinth will remain in place through Memorial Day weekend (May 26th) or until conditions necessitate its removal.

People, ancient cultures, and traditions have used spiral and labyrinth designs as symbols of their search for meaning and guidance. A labyrinth is a "unicursal" or one path design—there are no tricks, no decisions to make—just follow the path. The labyrinth is non-denominational. People of all faiths and people longing to re-connect to faith or seeking personal reflection, come to walk labyrinths.

Some of the earliest forms of labyrinths are found in Greece, dating back to 2500-2000 B.C.E. Labyrinths were such a major part of the fabric of early societies that they were frequently embossed on coins and pottery and carved into church walls. Early Christian labyrinths date back to 4th century including one discovered in a basilica in Algeria. One of the most famous is the labyrinth laid into the cathedral floor at Chartres, France in the thirteenth century. The Chartres design is a classical eleven-circuit labyrinth (eleven concentric circles) with the twelfth being in the center of the labyrinth. During the middle ages, labyrinths were sometimes used as a local substitute to making a pilgrimage to a holy site to avoid the dangers of ongoing conflicts or the risks of walking through areas where safety was not assured.
