Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Peace to you and your family in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

It has been nearly six months since we began our ministry together. I thank God for each of you and look forward to all that lies ahead. We have much to be grateful for, and through your continued commitment and support, we can sustain our ministries while preparing faithfully for the future.

As we approach the Church's new year and the First Sunday of Advent, I look forward with hope to the movement of God in this place. Each of us has a ministry and a calling. My prayer is that together we will discern God's will for our lives and for the life of our Cathedral community. As part of that discernment, I invite you to consider how you will offer your time, talent, and treasure.

This is Stewardship Season in our Christian communities. Across The Episcopal Church and throughout our diocese, congregations are prayerfully discerning the gifts they will offer to God. Here at Trinity Cathedral, our theme is "Stewardship as a Way of Life."

Although the church observes a stewardship season each year, stewardship is a lifelong commitment to care responsibly for all that God has entrusted to us.

What are you going to do with what God has given you?

This question is for each of us individually and for our whole community of faith. God has been good to us; therefore, we give back—not out of obligation, but out of gratitude. I invite you to make a pledge for 2027 and to prayerfully consider the biblical practice of tithing.

Every year during our stewardship campaign, we often ask, "How much should I give?" A better question is, "How is God calling me to give?" We may think our gifts are primarily for a budget, a fundraiser, salaries, or a building fund. Yet tithing is not simply about meeting institutional needs; it is a spiritual response to God's generosity.

We do not merely give to a need; we have a need to give, because God has first given to us.

We tithe because:

1. Scripture calls us to give.
 - Proverbs 3:9–10
 - Malachi 3:6–10

2. Tithing requires faith and trust in God. It invites us to rely on God rather than on ourselves alone.
3. Giving supports the Church's mission. It strengthens the ministry of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As the saying goes, "Money follows mission."
4. Tithing expresses gratitude. We give because we are thankful for all that God has given us.
5. Giving forms us spiritually. It frees us from the human tendency to take full credit for our own success.

We focus on money during Stewardship Season because the way we handle money is a spiritual matter. It reveals what we value and, ultimately, what we worship. Jesus spoke often about money and possessions because faith finds practical expression in how we use our treasure. As he teaches, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:21, NRSV).

In the tithe, God asks us to trust. We do not tithe because it is easy; we tithe because God calls us to entrust every part of our lives to God. As you prayerfully consider your pledge, ask yourself:

- Do I truly believe in God?
- Do I truly trust God?

I believe that God is real and that God can and will provide for the needs of Trinity Cathedral when we place our trust in God. Jesus said to his disciples—and these words still speak to us today—"Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back" (Luke 6:38, NRSV).

As you consider all that is being asked of you, remember the words we often recite from 1 Chronicles 29:14: "All things come from thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given thee."

May our giving be a faithful response to God's generosity and a joyful expression of gratitude, trust, and hope.

In Christ,

For All the Saints,

Who From Their Labors Rest

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Reading

Lector: Fay Manicke

A Reading from the Revelation of John (7:9-17)

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.” Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Lector: Sue Gummere

A Reading from the First letter of John (1 John 3:1-3)

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

The Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively

Lector: Chinweze Ahaghotu

Deacon: Cleansed in the blood of the Lamb, and one in communion with all the saints of every time and place, let us offer our prayers to the God who loves us, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For the holy church of God throughout the world, that the Lord may confirm it in faith, sustain it in hope, and deepen its communion in charity, let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember God's holy catholic church, including Sean, our Presiding Bishop and Primate; Sally, our Bishop; Terence, Acting Dean of this Cathedral; Noel and Peter, priest associates; Christopher and Kimme, our Deacons, along with all other ministers in this congregation, lay and ordained; Sarah, the Archbishop of Canterbury, and all Anglican Christians around the world, especially Iglesia Anglicana de la Region Central de America, and for our brothers and sisters in this diocese, including Joe Morris, Sylvestre and William, retired Bishops, All Saints' Church in Bay Head, Lakewood, Navesink, Princeton, and Scotch Plains, and the Revs.: Canon Jonathan Deacon, Canon John T. Morrow, and Frank C. Strasburger. Let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For those who wield earthly power, that they may recognize in the disciples of Jesus children of God anxious to serve in building up the earthly city, let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: We commend to your prayers this day all persons deployed in the service of our country. May they dwell safely under the protection of Almighty God. Let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For those beset by persecution for righteousness' sake and those weighed down by trial and distress, that the example of the saints may give them courage and the help of believers give them hope, let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember before you those who are sick, or in any other special need, especially the residents of Hamilton Grove Care and Rehabilitation Center; along with the People of Ukraine, Russia, Israel, Palestine, Iran, Haiti, and Sudan, Annmarie Paisley, Lucy Adams, Nema, Carolyn Burke, Ralph Burke, Dr. Yan Trokel, the Randazzo family, Allison Kell, Virginia Benck, Pope Leo, the Keaton family, Myrna Calcagni, Caroline McIntyre, John Wygand, Andrea Schultz, Jess & Gary Trio, and those we name before you now (silence).

We pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For this assembly gathered to celebrate the eucharist in communion with the church in heaven and throughout the world, that nourished by the word of truth and the bread of life we may bear witness in our own generation to the timeless gospel of Christ, let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember those with whom we give thanks, especially those who celebrate birthdays and anniversaries this week: Adam Snow, Mary Johnson, Keenan Ross, Kenton Ross, Gabrielle John and Gemelle John-Bedu, Lori Cooper, The Rev. Dr. John Luttrell & Abel Bedu. Let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Lector: For those who departed this life in faith and in the fear of God, that they may join the innumerable throng of holy ones gathered before the throne and the Lamb, let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Deacon: We remember those who have died, especially Audrey Blackburn, David Sutton, Jim Morford & Daniel Sisk, the victims of violence in our neighborhoods, the victims of the ongoing wars around the world, and those we name before you now (silence). Let us pray to the Lord.

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Silence, as the people add their own petitions

Celebrant: Almighty God, to whom we must account for all our powers and privileges: Guide the people of the United States in the election of officials and representatives; that, by faithful administration and wise laws, the rights of all may be protected and our nation be enabled to fulfill your purposes; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way.

Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to thy law, we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant: Holy God, mighty God, immortal God, adored by angels and praised by the saints, receive the prayers of your holy church, and grant them in accordance with your gracious will, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession of Sin

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel. Silence may be kept.

Celebrant and People:

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Bishop when present, or the Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People:* And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds . . .

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People:

Hymnal # S-129

Sanctus

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues . . .

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray . . .

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Then may be said . . .

Agnus Dei

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

All Baptized Christians are welcome to receive Communion. Please follow the directions of the Clergy and Ushers. You may either stand or kneel when receiving communion. Children may receive the Bread and Wine according to the discretion of the parents. Cross your arms over your breast to receive a blessing if you do not wish to receive either Bread or Wine. If you wish to receive by intinction, leave the host (bread) on your palm. Because communion is complete in either form, reception of either bread or wine alone constitutes a full communion. If you need to receive Holy Communion in your pew, please notify one of the ushers.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People:

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing

Celebrant: The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

TRINITY CATHEDRAL OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW JERSEY
NOVEMBER 1, 2026 ~ ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY

Following Christ, joining the Cathedral – We invite you to accept the invitation to follow Christ, to become a Christian and to become a member of Trinity Cathedral. We encourage you to fill in one of the pew cards and place it in the offering plate, or please contact one of the clergy.

We are all children of God.
There is no longer Jew or Greek.
There is no longer slave or free.
There is no longer male and female.
For we are all one.

We believe Jesus lived for this and died for this.
We pledge ourselves with God's help and the support of each other to make this become a reality.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Lectors for the 10:30 am Mass on 1181 are:

Gail Lewis, Susan Remmers, Sherri Anderson & Cn. Phil Lewis (alternate)

Chalice Bearers: Bobbie Powell, Sue Gummere

The Ushers/Greeters are:

Edward Greenfield (Greeter/Usher) & Margaret Nartey (alternate)

The Acolytes are: Laurus Ketter, Prince Dennis, Noah Lee & Cyrus Ketter

Please join us for hospitality hour following the 10:30 AM service in Synod Hall! Meet new friends, and enjoy those you already know. If you are new to the Cathedral we'd like to get to know you! Enjoy hot and cold drinks and brunch treats. The entrance to Synod Hall is on the left, off the hallway leading to the parking lot doors. (Just ask if you need directions!)

"Hospitality bringers" for November 8, 2026: Georgia Koenig: ½ gal. iced tea and ½ gal. juice; Cynthia Coleman: Baked goods; Carolyn Ford: fruit; Anthony Rabara: salad makings/dressing. If you would like to bring an item to share, Joyce Gibbs-Spears will have a sign-up sheet in the Synod Hall kitchen during hospitality hour. You don't need to bring something every week, even once per month would be welcomed. You can also sign up to help with set-up & clean-up. Each week, we will print a reminder list the same way we do with our altar servers.

Soon it will be turkey time! – Please consider contributing non-perishable Thanksgiving side dishes for us to distribute through our Food Pantry. Think canned vegetables, boxed potatoes, gravy, dessert mixes, etc. Donations can be left on the frontal case in Synod Hall. Thank you, on behalf of our neighbors, for your generosity!

Have you checked out our "Anglicanism 101" class? Each Sunday at 9:15 am in Synod Hall, we learn about the things that make our Episcopal Church what it is. Sessions are informative but not overwhelming, and combine historical info. with present-day relevance. Why do Episcopalians do what we do? Come grab a cup of coffee and find out more! Our last Anglicanism 101 will be on November 22nd, Christ the King Sunday. Mark your calendars for November 29th, when we will share a parish-wide activity for the first Sunday of Advent!

One of our neighbors that has mobility issues needs a ride to church. She lives at the Luther Towers on West State Street, so close to the Cathedral. If you think you can help out (it doesn't need to be every week) please call Patrice in the office.

Did you know that we host weekly Rosary Devotions? Our group meets via Zoom on Thursdays at 8:00 pm. You can also join via phone if you do not use Zoom. If you would like more information, and to receive a printed devotional to follow along, please speak with Cn. Paul Cooper or Erica Warner.

To help make everyone feel welcome at the Cathedral, we ask that everyone wear their nametags for worship and events at the Cathedral. Look for your nametag near the parking lot entrance. If there is not one with your name on it yet, please use a temporary nametag and sign up on the sheet provided; one will be made for you the following week.

The next Food Pantry distribution date is – Saturday, November 14th (2nd & 4th Saturdays this month) from 9-11:00 am. Each Thursday, we distribute hot dinners “to go” from 4:15–5:30pm at the Overbrook Avenue entrance as a satellite location for the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen.

As people of faith, may we heed the advice of World Vision in their “6 Ways to Pray for Our Country during the Midterm Elections”:

Dear Lord, thank You that we have government representatives who believe Your truth. Remind them to seek Your guidance as they make decisions that affect our country and world. Send them godly wisdom and good counselors. And give election candidates the strength to choose integrity in both their campaigns and their terms in office.

1. Pray for candidates to seek God’s guidance.
2. Pray that candidates (and all of us!) would have listening ears and soft hearts.
3. Pray for candidates to address poverty and justice issues.
4. Pray for strength and encouragement for our leaders and election candidates.
5. Pray that our leaders would commit to working together (and that we would too).
6. Pray that we would see each other through Jesus’ eyes.

God, forgive us for the times we’ve failed to treat each other as Your creation. Forgive us for celebrating unloving behavior in our candidates and our leaders. Call our leaders and political candidates to a new level of respect and civility. Remind them that You are sovereign and that the wisest choice we can make is to serve You and serve others. May there be a new movement of collaboration and respect in our nation’s capital and throughout the country. Give Your people the strength to lead by example with radical, world-changing love.

May we all pray:

Gracious and Loving God, Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and set us free. Embolden us with your Divine Power of Peace with courage and humility, to seek reconciliation and wholeness, not vindication. We ask this through your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

WARM UP!

Items Needed!

Bring your donations by Nov. 1st

Do you have coats, sweaters, pants or hoodies that are just sitting in your closet waiting to warm up someone?

We are collecting new and gently worn clean coats, sweaters and hoodies. Adult, teen and children's sizes.

New sock donations welcomed too!

For more information call the Cathedral office and leave a message for Lucy

Thank You in advance for your donation of warmth!

Distribution Day = November 14th * 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Have a person on your holiday list who has everything?

Gift idea: Purchase a new item or two from the list above & give it in that person's name. In a note or card write: A gift of warmth has been given in your honor. A coat, socks, etc. has been donated the Trinity Cathedral Warm-up Project.
